

ONTARIO QUARTER HORSE RACING
INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

October 10, 2017

Notice to the Industry

Breeders and Stallion owners are reminded that it is a requirement of the Program that to be eligible for Breeders' and Stallion Awards, they need to be enrolled in the Program no later than the 15th day following the final day of racing. This year, that date is November 14, 2017.

Each individual, partnership, syndicate or corporation listed as Breeder of Record of an eligible horse must be registered separately in the Program and hold a valid AGCO Program license in order to be eligible for awards.

Stallion owners must be Ontario Resident and stallions must register as an Ontario Accredited Stallion in the current racing year. Stallion owners are reminded that the Report of Mares Bred needs to be submitted no later than November 30 in order for the stallion to retain his accreditation status for the year. In order to receive Stallion Awards, owners of retired or deceased stallions must have an application on file for each year that the stallion has progeny racing.

Applications to Record and Owner/Lessee/Group can be found on the Ontario Racing website, <http://ontarioracing.com/Industry/Breeding-Programs/Quarter-Horse-Program.aspx>.
